By VALERIE EVENDEN of the Press-Record

Memorial Day weekend, the traditional start of summertime activities, this year has more than a little import for past and current members of Paddlers Inc., the local family membership swim club, located at 2121 Johnson Road.

This summer's opening day at the pool, scheduled Saturday, May 29, will mark the private swimming club's 25th year in the community.

Also inaugurating the start of the 1982 swimming season is formal opening of the Wilson Park Pool at 1 p.m. Saturday.

11-year-old drowns in lake

David E. Kelley, 11, of 2023 Dewey Ave., drowned about 5 p.m. Monday, May 24, 1982, while swimming in Crater Lake, one of a series of ponds and pools at the rear of the now-closed A. O. Smith plant, east of Route 3.

His body was recovered by a member of the Bubblemasters Underwater Recovery Team (BURT) at 6:45 p.m. Monday and he was pronounced dead at 7:30 p.m. by an emergency room physician at St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

Extensive resuscitation efforts to revive the boy were carried out at the scene, while enroute to the hospital and in the emergency room.

Crater Lake No. 1, where the accident occurred, is located on Norfolk & Western Railroad property, near the north end of the Route 3 overpass.

David and two other Granite City boys, ages 11 and 12, had decided to go swimming about 3:45 p.m. Monday, it was learned. It is believed David told his two companions he could swim, but he apparently could not, according to a Madison County Sheriff's Department spokesman.

DAVID KELLEY

The boys were playing in about three feet of water when David went out about 20 yards from shore, unaware of a sudden drop-off at that point, the spokesman said.

His friends attempted to grab David as he went under the water, but were unable to hold onto the boy, they told officers.

BURT members were called by the sheriff's office and Granite City police, who dispatched an ambulance to the scene. The assistant fire chief and a pumper also were sent.

Bruce Evans of Granite City, an experienced BURT diver, recovered the body in five feet of water, about 35 yards from shore.

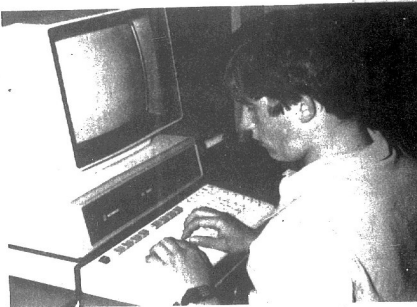

"The diver found the boy about 10 minutes after going into the water. He was on the bottom," said Gary Giovannini, a member of the underwater rescue unit.

"It is really sad and I wish there was some way to convince children not to swim or play around unsupervised waters," the BURT spokesman stated.

One of David's companions led a Granite City officer to the large pond after local police received a telephone call from a young girl advising them of the accident. The boy's clothing and a bicycle were found on the shore.

David was a fifth grade pupil at Logan School. Among the survivors are his parents, Mrs. Esther Kelley of Granite City and Junior Lee Kelley of Missouri.

Funeral arrangements may be found in today's obituary column.

Resurface Nameoki Road?

The Granite City Council has approved plans submitted by the state for the purpose of resurfacing Nameoki Road between Ponton and Edwardsville roads.

The Nameoki Road (Illinois Route 203) resurfacing project for all four traffic lanes will be arranged and financed by the state.

In a recent resolution, Granite City aldermen approved the specifications for the work. The state is expected to seek bids for the project next month.

The project could begin within 30 days of bid seeking and, if begun promptly, could be completed by late summer.

During the resurfacing, traffic flow will be maintained.

In other Granite City Council action, the council in a Monday night caucus and Tuesday public hearing considered its $11.27 million budget (which will be

Seek to convert corn stocks into alcohol

Sen. Charles H. Percy (R-Ill.) and Senator Alan J. Dixon (D-Ill.) have introduced legislation which would permit the secretary of Agriculture to convert government-held corn stocks into fuel alcohol.

"Industry analysts estimated that the mounting stocks of corn held by the Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) have been depressing prices by as much as 20 cents per bushel," Percy said. "For the government to drive prices down by holding on to some 264 million bushels of corn simply because it cannot dispose of it is a burden to the taxpayers and an injury to our farmers."

Dixon, a member of the Senate Agriculture Committee and prime co-sponsor of the bill, said the Surplus Agricultural Commodities Disposal Act will "create a new demand for these stocks at a savings to the government." Dixon said, "The outlook for the agriculture economy is bleak. Estimates for net farm income are at the lowest level since the Great Depression.

"In 1981, for the first time in over a decade, the value of agricultural exports declined. The amount of stock held by the CCC and in the farmers' held reserve continues to increase and with the possibility of good crops again this year, this amount will continue to become larger."

The Percy-Dixon legislation will permit the Secretary of Agriculture to continue a pilot project authorized by the CCC Board of Directors in April 1982 to convert four million bushels of low-grade CCC stock into fuel alcohol. Under the pilot project, which expires June 1984, the CCC receives bids from alcohol fuel processors who are paid to convert surplus corn to ethanol, protein and other co-products. Proceeds from the sale of the ethanol go to the CCC and the processors are allowed to keep the co-products at no charge.

The legislation gives the Secretary the authority to continue that pilot project but stipulates that the ethanol must be used by the federal auto fleet. This measure is designed to protect alcohol fuel producers who are not participating in the program and, therefore, could not compete in the open market against those processors who are utilizing CCC corn.

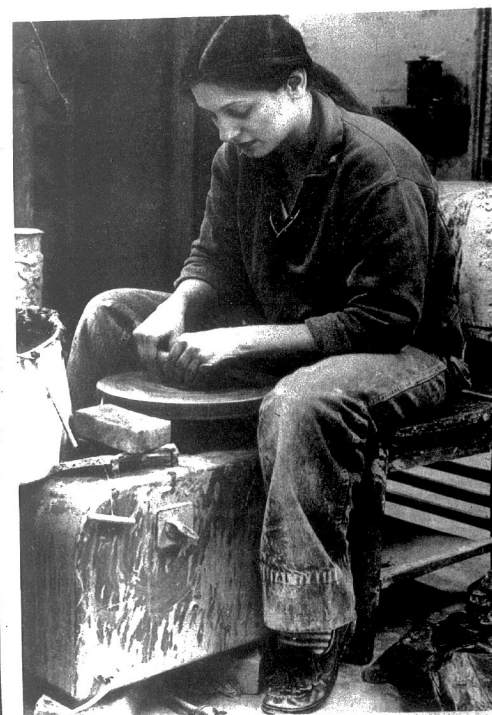

Provisions of the Percy-Dixon legislation are designed to: Bring down the large surplus of CCC corn which resulted from the 1980 Soviet Grain Embargo. In 1977, the CCC held only 1 million bushels of corn. But October 1982, the holdings are expected to increase to 315 million and could reach 375 million bushels by October 1983.

Reduce the high cost of storing CCC corn. It is estimated that the handling, storage and interest expenses alone cost the government 80 cents per bushel.

And, provide low-cost fuel for the federal government's fleet. The General Services Administration (GSA) is required under executive order to purchase ethanol enriched gasoline blends if they are less costly than unleaded gasoline. Under the Percy-Dixon bill, the GSA would be obligated to purchase the CCC ethanol for blending into gasoline for use in the federal fleet.

Bell expands 800 number service

Illinois Bell is now offering its business customers three new optional 800 Service features, local officials announced this week. The features are part of Expanded 800 Service and offer improvements to existing 800 Service (WATS—Wide Area Telecommunications Service) which enables a business to receive calls from anyone within a preselected geographical area at no charge to the caller.

The new features are Single Number Service, Customized Call Routing and Variable Call Routing. Single Number Service permits the use of a single toll-free 800 telephone number for both interstate and intrastate calls. In the past, at least two numbers were needed, one for out-of-state calls and one for calls within a state.

Customized Call Routing allows a business to route its 800 calls to various answering locations based on the area codes from which the calls originate. For example, with Customized Call Routing, calls coming in from different area codes will be directed to persons or offices designated to handle specific geographical regions. These answering points may be in the same location or at different locations across the country.

Variable Call Routing enables a business to change the destinations of its 800 Service calls based on the time of day and day of the week. If, for example, it's quitting time at a company's East Coast office, calls can be routed to the company's office on the West Coast.

"Expanded 800 Service uses the capabilities of the public switched network to provide the flexibility business customers need to get even more from their 800 Service," said Bob Schewe, Illinois Bell product manager. "And best of all, business customers can select the option or combination of options that will best serve their needs."

Swimming season

recently was elected Paddlers president for the third time.

The idea of a neighborhood pool was conceived by the late Mrs. Vera McBride, with the original planning initiated in 1954. The pool was constructed in February, 1957, and was opened for swimming the same season.

In order to raise sufficient funds to purchase the property, start excavation work and then build the pool and bathhouse facility, the area surrounding the property was canvassed on a door-to-door basis.

Most of the solicitation for members was accomplished by Mrs. McBride, in person, with the help of some volunteers who were literally "pressed" into service.

During this period, despite several setbacks, a total of 133 original stockholders came through, each contributing $150 cash, showing the amount of confidence they had in the proposed project.

The club's name, "Paddlers," has caused much speculation over the intervening years as to its origin, it was noted.

In 1954, before the club was officially chartered, a small group of interested people sat around in the McBride living room discussing possible names.

Such fanciful sobriquets as—Suburban Swimming Club, Maryland Heights Swimming Club and Nameoek Swimming Club—were being tossed around when the late John Dufner, an attorney and one of the charter members, stated "Well, we will all just be paddling around, so let's just call it Paddlers." His suggestion was adopted without dissent.

There have been numerous changes and much growth since those early years.

A second large pool, constructed in 1966, was officially opened last summer when Francis McBride again was serving as president. "I remember it was 104 degrees that day," McBride commented Wednesday.

A volleyball court was added in 1969 and, in 1975, an 800-square-foot game pavilion and 1,800 square foot concrete deck were built to increase the club's recreational opportunities and improve the aesthetic appeal of the property.

McBride announced that further improvements are planned this year, with the parking area to be extended and a meeting room to be completed in the original bathhouse structure.

Under the management of Keith Parker, Coolidge track coach, who managed Paddlers pool from its inception until 1968, many innovative programs were initiated and still are growing under the direction of Rich Williams, Paddlers' current manager, and Galtung.

Paddlers offers swimming lessons to anyone in the community wishing to learn and the program has been claimed for its development of swimming talent.

Parker started the instruction program in 1960 and was approached by the Granite City Jaycees in 1961 to provide swimmers for competition in a Jaycee-sponsored meet in Centralia. A call went out to the kids and 30 youngsters responded and formed Paddlers first swim team and they captured second place in the Jaycees district meet," Parker recalls.

A short time later, the swim team began competing in the Southwestern Illinois Swimming Association (SWISA) Conference and today remains a strong and positive part of the Paddlers organization, with a present roster of 100 competitive swimmers.

Under the excellent coaching of Celeste Sonnenburg and Ann Peters, Paddlers has attained two consecutive SWISA championships, it was noted. Additionally, Gayle McCormick, diving coach, led the club's divers to a first place in the conference last season.

The social program at Paddlers will include several special events this summer under the supervision of Lee Suarez.

Adult swim nights are planned on June 12, July 10 and Aug. 14, a 25th anniversary party is scheduled June 26, a pre-teen party July 14, a teen party on July 30 and a family-style picnic on Aug. 29.

Serving with McBride as officers for 1982 are:

Bill Baldwin, executive vice president, Richard Bills, financial vice president, Tom Braddock, operations vice president, Glen Cornelison, membership vice president, Jessie Diaz, secretary and Frank Halvachs, treasurer.

Directors are Terry Reed, John Stone, Gayle McCormick, Arnel Allen, Russ Robinson, John Suarez, Michael Wertha and Don Lane.

Further information about Saturday's celebration may be obtained by calling 631-5885, or 631-3127.

MOTORIST HURT

Timothy Faulkner, 22, of 2147 Waterman Ave., was injured at 1:45 a.m. Monday, when the vehicle he was driving north in the 2600 block of Benton Street, allegedly struck the rear of a parked car belonging to Charles Shaffer, 2638 Benton. Faulkner said the accident occurred when he swerved to avoid a squirrel in the roadway.

BAC placement tests scheduled

Belleville Area College will hold math and English placement testing for the fall, 1982, semester at the BAC Granite City day extension Tuesday, Aug. 17, and Tuesday, Aug. 24. The tests will be from 9 a.m. to noon at the Washington Day School, 2600 W. 20th St., Granite City. The first hour will be math testing; the last two hours will be English testing. No one will be admitted after 9 a.m.

There is no registration for the test and no charge. Students should bring several No. 2 lead pencils. For information, call Pat Brian at the BAC main campus, 235-2700, extension 333.

AUTO THEFT

John Sealey, 2015 Washington Ave., reported at 6:45 p.m. Monday that his 1970 gold colored Granlin auto had been stolen from a parking area near his house. A neighbor reported seeing two men alight from a pickup truck, get into the car and drive it away, the owner advised police.

HOUSE BURGLARY

Linda Phillips, 2133 Benton St., reported last week-end that someone forced open a rear upstairs door and stole an AM-FM stereo, eight-track tapeplayer, turntable and speakers, valued at $150.

DUMP TRUCK? This Prairie Farms Dairy trailer didn't get too far from the loading docks Tuesday morning when it disconnected from the tractor pulling it. Blocking Niedringhaus Avenue at Benton Street for more than an hour, the trailer was loaded with margarine, which was later transferred to another trailer for shipment.

DAV Chapter in Memorial Day program

Participation in a Memorial Day program was one of the topics discussed at the May meeting of Quad Cities Chapter 53, Disabled American Veterans. It was reported that the DAV Chapter will join with other veteran, military, fraternal and civic organizations in a Memorial Day program coordinated by Mrs. Betty Wilkins of AMVET Post 51. McGuire said the program will conclude at City Hall with each organization, both veteran and ladies auxiliary, placing a wreath at the plaque representing the tomb of the unknown soldier.

There was no Service Officers' report since both service officers, Larry Lockhart and Robert Pine, were on vacation.

Bill Bratten was reported to be at the Colonades Nursing Home, and George Lipscomb, is recovering following his recent hospitalization.

Joseph Heffery, adjutant, read correspondence from "Jobs for Vets" which asked for our assistance in obtaining employment for the veterans in the area. The "Jobs for Vets" organization had its concept in Chicago and has been functioning successfully there for several years — so successful, in fact, that a branch office was opened in Belleville, to serve Southern Illinois veterans.

Eldon Curtright spoke on a legislative action plan recently received from National Headquarters. He said that the plan is intended to arouse "grassroots" support or opposition to proposed legislation affecting veterans at all levels of government.

Implementation of the plan will take quite a lot of time and will involve as many as 25 to 30 members.

Commander Lawrence McGuire, noted the June meeting will be an "open meeting." All local veterans, both member and non-member are welcome to attend. We will have members of the National Service Office present to answer questions relative to service, Social Security, employment, DAY Outreach Program for Vietnam veterans, and other subjects important to both the disabled and the non-disabled. George Krpan will assist Larry Lockhart in providing hospitality services for this function on June 21.

Delegates were elected to attend the National Convention in Las Vegas in July. Lunch was prepared and served to those in attendance by Mike Murgich.

DRIVER HURT AT

Bailey was charged with failing to yield the right of way at an intersection.

Thief abandons car stolen here

Ralph Torres, 2724 Dale Ave., told police at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday that he had recovered his 1973 auto at 12th Street and Edwardsville Road. The car had been reported stolen from the Edwards Street and Ridgedale Avenue at 9:20 a.m. that day.

A Panasonic pocket radio, valued at $80, and a 12-volt car battery, worth $65, were missing from the vehicle, he said.

Officers learned from a person living near the scene of the car theft that a thin, black-haired woman wearing a white tee-shirt and jeans, was seen getting into the Torres auto and driving it away about 6 p.m. Monday.

A man accompanying the woman then followed her in another vehicle, the resident said.

State police applications accepted through June 15

The Illinois Department of Law Enforcement merit board will be accepting applications for sworn officers openings through June 15, according to Director James B. Zigel and Anne Taylor, merit board chairperson.

"The current state of the economy dictates that we get by with fewer officers than in past years; however, the high number of retirements anticipated in the next two to three years requires creation of a new eligibility list," said Zigel.

Officials anticipate that the eligibility list may remain in force through 1984. Applicants must meet the qualifications required by Illinois statute and file an acceptable application form with required documents and pass a stringent physical ability test, written examination, oral interview, psychological evaluation, background investigation and medical examination.

Those successfully completing the process will be considered for an 18 week class at the Department of Law Enforcement Academy in Springfield.

During training, cadets earn $1,376 per month. Upon graduation, the monthly salary increases to $1,425. To maintain compliance with the department's affirmative action guidelines, 50 percent of those hired will be white males while 50 percent will be minorities and females.

Applications and additional information about qualifications and the selection process can be obtained from the District 11 headquarters in Maryville.

Tax bills by first week in July

Madison County residents will be receiving their property tax bills earlier this year, county treasurer Mike Henkhaus says.

As things stand now, the bills could be sent the first week in July. A due date for the first installment hasn't been set yet but will probably be about the first of August, since payment is due within 30 days of the bills' receipt.

Henkhaus said property owners will again be given a 60-day period in which to pay the second installment.

Last year, tax bills were not mailed out until the middle of August.

County officials say a major reason the tax cycle has improved this year lies with a much lower number of complaints to the Board of Review on property tax assessments.

The previous year, the Board of Review heard a record number of complaints, more than 1,000.

Consequently, the three-member board, which by law is supposed to end its work Dec. 31, was in session into May.

This year, with about 2,200 complaints, the Board of Review was done by the third week in January, according to information from the Board of Review office. Getting the tax cycle back on track has great significance for the taxing bodies who are waiting for their funds.

Because property owners will be turning in their taxes sooner, the coffers of the taxing bodies will be filling sooner.

YMCA swim classes to 'waterproof every youth'

Drowning has become the third leading cause of accidental death in the United States, according to national statistics. Nearly one-third of the victims are teenagers between the ages of 15 and 19 and over more than 60 percent are under 25.

"These grim statistics — and others like them — underscore the value in knowing how to swim and explain why the Tri-City Area YMCA places so much stress on swimming instructions," David L. Penrite, executive director, said today. "We'd like to see every youth waterproofed every year."

In announcing the YMCA's learn-to-swim week, which will begin Monday, May 31, Penrite pointed out that not all drowning fatalities are caused by learning to swim. "The fact remains, however, that two-thirds of the people who drown are non-swimmers," he said.

The best all around form of exercise, swimming is good for the heart, good for the lungs, and especially good in relieving tension and stress, the scourge of modern man, he said. "It's good for all ages."

Swimming — which is useful lots of fun — also opens the door to a host of other exciting activities closed to the non-swimmer. In addition to boating, there is skin diving, water skiing, surf boarding, and others. "The 'Y' is a good place to learn to swim because of the 'Y's' wealth of expertise. The 'Y's' has been teaching swimming almost as long as there's been a YMCA and that's over 100 years."

The Y's Learn-to-Swim program will be able to swim 50 feet safely at the end of the five-day course. They will then be ready for more advanced instruction.

"In addition to protection against drowning, swimming can help prolong life in other ways," Penrite said.

Granite City included in Summer Jobs Program

Ralston Purina Co. this summer will provide some 670 jobs for disadvantaged teenagers in 34 cities across the nation, including Granite City, through the company's $500,000 Summer Jobs Program, it was announced Tuesday by John P. Baird, senior vice-president.

Cities involved in this year's program are: St. Louis, Kansas City and St. Joseph, Mo.; East St. Louis, Springfield, Bloomington, Springfield and Dubois, Ill.; Denver and Fort Collins, Colo.; San Diego, Chula Vista, Escondido and Vista, Calif.; Lafayette, La.; Evansville, Ind.; Grand Rapids and Mason, Mich.; Montgomery, Ala.; and Lincoln Heights, Ohio.

Other cities are New York and Dunkirk, N.Y.; Shawnee, Okla.; Louisville, Ky.; Fort Worth and San Antonio, Tex.; Madison and Fond Du Lac, Wis.; Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Flagstaff and Tucson, Ariz.; Spokane, Wash.; Macon and Atlanta, Ga.; Harrisburg, Pa.; Omaha, Neb.; Shreveport, La.; Wichita, Kans.; Memphis, Tenn.; and Aberdeen, S.D.

This marks the 13th consecutive year of the company's Summer Employment Program, one of the nation's most comprehensive corporate-sponsored teenage job programs.

The 670 jobs are in various community service organizations and small businesses. All positions are coordinated through local non-profit agencies. Each youth will earn a gross income of $670 over a 10-week employment period.

The $500,000 allocation to the 1982 program represents a 50 percent increase over 1981. Last year, Ralston Purina provided more than $300,000 for 467 jobs in 33 cities.

Through this program, thousands of youths have acquired marketable skills for employment, and, at the same time, earned money to help support their families. Additionally, local small businesses and community service organizations have benefited from having more manpower available to their operations.

For these reasons, we at Ralston Purina are quite pleased to again sponsor the Summer Jobs Program," said Baird. The senior vice-president added, "The $500,000 increased funding for this year's program is in response to the message of President Ronald Reagan that private industry will have to become more community oriented as responsible corporate citizens."

Non-profit agencies located in those towns where Ralston has a major plant or other facility are selected on the basis of proposals submitted in accordance with specific guidelines. Each proposal is extensively reviewed by the company's Urban Programs Department at the St. Louis headquarters. The responsibilities of the agencies are to locate these jobs, recruit the youth and supervise the overall program during the summer.

Said Baird, "One of the most important criteria used for evaluating the proposal is the skill producing and/or skill using potential of each job, as well as the level of on-the-job supervision which will be provided."

The objective is to provide each youth with work experience that can be converted into income earning capabilities upon graduation from high school.

Funds provided by Ralston Purina cover the youths' wages at the rate of $3.35 an hour, plus the employer's portion of the FICA tax (6.7 percent). Workmen's Compensation and Unemployment Compensation is required by law for a particular job or job location.

RANSACK DWELLING

A burglar broke a storm door latch and then the window of a second door to enter the home of Margaret Milton, 1630 State St., last weekend. All rooms in the dwelling had been ransacked. An inventory was being taken to determine what items are missing.

Bower initiated into agriculture society

Dr. Geraldine Bower, University of Illinois Extension Adviser for Madison County, was one of 143 persons recently initiated into Gamma Sigma Delta, international honor society of agriculture, at the University of Illinois.

The 1982 initiates included 32 faculty members, 31 graduate students, 55 seniors and five alumni of the University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

To be invited into membership, faculty members must be employed at least three years and graduate students must demonstrate promise in agricultural research, teaching and scholarship. Undergraduates invited into membership are in the upper 15 percent of the senior class based on their cumulative grade point.

Former resident performs on TV

Pianist Melissa "Missy" Myatt, 12, daughter of Gerald and Margaret Myatt of Highland, formerly of Granite City, gave her first performance on television last night over South Western Cable TV regional access channel 1.

Melissa is a piano and voice student of Phil Spence of Highland, also a former longtime resident of Granite City.

"Words and Music with Missy," a 30-minute music show featuring the talents of Melissa, will be aired in its entirety at 7 p.m. Sunday, May 30.

A portion of the show was presented at 7 p.m. Wednesday and another segment is scheduled for telecasting at 7 p.m. Friday.

According to Spence, the youthful artist's program will range from the nostalgic "Bye, Bye Blackbird" to such contemporary numbers as "After the Loving."

Melissa gave her first public performance about a year ago in the Kirchenfest in Highland and then appeared at Santa's house at Christmas. "Spence said, Melissa has been studying with Spence for the past two years.

A widely known organist and pianist, Spence and his family moved from Granite City to Highland about four years ago.

Chapters are located in 32 states, Puerto Rico and the Philippines.

David H. Baker professor of animal science, University of Illinois Department of Animal Science addressed the initiation banquet, April 19 on the subject of "Agricultural Applications of Genetic Engineering."

In addition, the Illinois chapter honored seven sophomores, the college's outstanding senior and the chapter's JBT scholarship winner for their scholastic achievements. Donald R. Wilken, a hog producer from Danforth and Dale H. Sinclair, a farm machinery dealer from Martinsville, were recognized for their outstanding service to agriculture with the Award of Merit.

Senior fairgoers admitted free

Governor James R. Thompson announced last week that Illinois State Fairgoers 60 and older will be among those who will be able to get into the Fair without charge this year.

"This new fair policy will allow our senior citizens to have clean and wholesome entertainment at less cost," Thompson said. "This new policy will be another attractive drawing card for fair attendance, especially for those on fixed incomes. Instead of only one day for senior citizens, we are adopting the motto that "Every day is Senior Citizens' Day" at the Illinois State Fair."

Thompson also said that children 16 and under will be admitted free. "This will help parents with large families spend their money on having fun with their families rather than spending it at the gate," Thompson said.

In addition, there will be free admission and free parking for everyone on the final Sunday (August 15) of the fair, Thompson announced.

Admission to the fair will be $2 for those 17 to 59 until 5 p.m., when the gate price will drop to $1 for the rest of the day.

Besides dropping the price for senior citizens, Thompson said he has kept his promise to provide an air-conditioned building (the Emerson Building) for senior citizen activities at this year's fair, which runs from August 5-15.

Gate admission at last year's fair was $1.50 for adults and 50-cents for children. Senior citizens were admitted for 50 cents on Senior Citizens day and the gate admission was 50-cents after 5 p.m.

Circus acts highlight Ainal Shrine project

When the Flying Rodriguez Family of two catchers and six flyers start their act before the large crowds at the Ainal Shrine Southern Illinois Circus in Belleville, Granite City and DuQuoin, spectators will see their split second timing that makes one realize what a chance they take at each performance.

A new act that has the circus world talking, is Wayne and Ingrid Ragen and their group of Jungle Killers. This is the first trip to the Midwest for this couple, and instead of a chair and gun technique as in the past, they use patience and kindness as will be seen at the show.

The giant elephants will be a major part of the first half and the start of the second half will see the Kardell Sisters Act where they hang by their hair.

Norbu, the almost human gorilla, will be another highlight of the show. The show runs through June 4 with a giant parade in Belleville at 9 p.m. on Friday night usually attracts more than 40,000 viewers. The merchants and city officials are hosts to more than 128 units entered. Saturday and Sunday, June 5 and 6, will see shows at 2:30 and 7:30 p.m. each day at the Belle-Claire Fairgrounds and a 9 p.m. show on Monday, June 7.

The parade will move to Granite City for a Tuesday night 7:30 p.m. event and three shows to follow on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday nights at 7:30 p.m. at the Tri-City Speedway on Route 203.

A huge parade in DuQuoin at 10 a.m. on Saturday, June 12, will be a fore-runner of the evening performance at the DuQuoin State Fairgrounds. A Saturday night show at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday 2:30 and 7:30 p.m. which will conclude the 16th year of circus for the people of Southern Illinois.

Polish Hall May Festival Sunday

The annual Polish Hall May Festival will be held Sunday, May 30, at 826 Greenwood St., Madison.

The menu will include chicken, dumplings, barbecued port steaks, shish-kabobs and hamburgers. Serving will begin at noon and carryout orders will be available.

The "Remedy Polka Band" will play from 7 p.m. until 11 p.m. and the Southern Illinois University Edwardsville Polish Cultural Troupe will perform at 8:30 p.m.

The all-day celebration will be held outdoors, weather permitting.

Zoning plan is rejected

The Granite City Plan Commission denied the petition of Mrs. Gary Coppedge, 2283 Maryville Road, for a zoning change for her residence from residential to commercial.

Mrs. Coppedge told the commissioners that she anticipates additional commercial development along Maryville Road, citing, as an example, a banking facility being developed at the corner of Buenger Avenue and Maryville Road and the stores already operating near the intersection of Parkview and Maryville roads.

Mrs. Coppedge said the plan to turn the residence into a doctor office facilities.

Neighbors of Mrs. Coppedge, present during the hearing, objected to the plans and presented a petition protesting the zoning change.

Residents listed, as among their objections to the zoning change, the loss of existing parking facilities in the neighborhood and the present residential quality of the area.

Take weapons in burglary

Upon arriving home shortly before 6 p.m. Monday, Jack LaPeire, 3095 Madison Ave., found the front door open. He said some broke a window in the side door to enter the dwelling and rummaged through drawers and closets.

Among the items stolen were a six-inch blue Colt Python weapon, valued at $500, a 38-caliber blue Colt special, worth $200, a man's wristwatch with a gold band, $150, a man's rust colored leather coat, $120, and a woman's beige wool coat, $90.

$10,930 in fire damage

The monthly Granite City Fire Department report for April listed 51 vehicles calls made and $10,930 in damage reported.

A breakdown of fires during the month showed 33 building fires, 12 motor vehicles, 10 rubbish and weed fires, one inhalator and rescue call, eight false alarms and seven calls of other types.

Estimated loss to buildings for the month was $2,000 with $1,180 to contents and $5,750 to motor vehicles.

A collision damaged the rear of her eastbound car, which had slowed for traffic, and the front of the eastbound auto of David Walker, 2416 Delta Ave.

2 CANNABIS ARRESTS

Free funds for Blue Waters Ditch

Governor James R. Thompson has announced that he has approved exemptions for 12 projects that had been among the state construction projects originally frozen last February. Among them is the Blue Waters Ditch project to relieve the Quad-City area of runoff water from the Bluffs.

The exemptions granted, totaling about $11.7 million, involve a variety of projects, ranging from continuing University of Illinois energy conservation projects that capture federal dollars to safety-related interior improvements at Kishwaukee College.

"These exemptions are the result of meetings between members of my staff and the advisory panel, which I appointed last March to review the construction freeze and determine which projects should move forward," the governor said. Thompson said the group has been asked to exempt those projects that are emergency in nature and deal with life, health and safety issues, involve economic development, help capture significant federal money or involve completion of a project in progress.

Thompson said the exemptions granted will lower the total cost of the construction projects frozen to slightly exceed $90 million. The advisory group will continue to meet with members of the governor's staff. The advisory group comprises four Chicago and downstate representatives of business and building unions.

The projects include:

- Land acquisition by the Department of Conservation in Johnson and Pulaski

Counties totaling $335,000 to capture 50 percent federal reimbursement.

- Completion of ongoing sewer improvements at the Vandallia Correctional Center totaling $25,000.
- Health and safety improvements at the Illinois Deaf-Blind Service Center and School in Glen Ellyn, totaling up to $300,000.
- A coal development project in conjunction with B. F. Goodrich totaling $4.3 million announced earlier.
- Design money for wastewater treatment facilities totaling $1.5 million, which will prevent the loss of federal funds.
- Additional heating for incoming patients at the Ludeman Developmental Center in Park Forest in preparation for the transfer of residents from the Dixon Developmental Center. The cost of the project is $94,400.

- Construction work at the Galesburg Development Center to meet compliance standards and receive federal funds. Construction work totals $78,178 and will allow the State to capture nearly $1.2 million in federal money in the coming fiscal year.
- Roof work at Kishwaukee College in Malta to fix a possible safety hazard. The cost is $50,000.
- Electrical work at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale to prevent a possible power failure. Construction costs $287,500.

- Complete the project at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville involving the cooling system at a cost of $224,000.
- Energy conservation projects at the University of Illinois to continue to receive federal funds. The projects total $1.5 million and will capture nearly $1.5 million in federal money.
- and, Construction of the Blue Waters Ditch near East St. Louis totaling $150,000, to receive federal funds of up to $11.6 million by the end of the project.

AUTO STOLEN FROM BENLD FOUND HERE

An auto stolen in Benld, Ill., was recovered at East 23rd and Monroe streets this weekend. The radio and speakers had been forcibly removed from the car, resulting in damage to the dash and rear deck.

A nearby resident called police after seeing someone park and leave the vehicle on the street late the previous night. A check on the license plates revealed the car had been stolen from Macoupin County.

BURGLAR TAKES GUN

A burglar who entered through a window took a .32-caliber revolver worth $200 and a $90 gold pocket watch with chain from the home of Kenneth Williamson, 2821 Dale Ave., last week.

Arrest 4 in parking area

Officers halted an auto in the Corral Liquors parking lot, 3304 Namecki Road, at this weekend and arrested three youths and an adult. Charged with being minors in possession of alcohol were Todd W. Thomas, 17, of 4102 Melrose Ave., Charles L. Lowry, 17, of 2134 Ohio Ave., and a 15-year-old Pontoon Beach youth. It was contended that Robert G. Fulmer, 23, of 601 Margaret Ave., Mitchell, purchased beer for the youths and he was arrested and charged with disorderly conduct.

Junior high report cards being mailed

Report cards for all junior high school students in Granite City will be mailed on or about June 11, according to Nancy Marti, assistant principal at the Coolidge JHS campus.

This is the first time report cards have been mailed for junior high level pupils. In the past, separate report cards for each class were given to the students on the last day of school.

The new report cards will have all the student's grades printed on a single form, showing grades for the entire school year, Mrs. Marti explained.

During the 1982-83 school year, all junior high students were scheduled for classes by the Data Processing Department. Each student's request for classes was submitted to the computer, along with the master schedule, and each student received a printed schedule of classes.

In addition to printing schedules and report cards, "Falling - Unsatisfactory" notices were prepared midway between grade reporting through the system.

These served as notice that students were currently receiving a "D" or "F" grade and needed to improve prior to the end of the grading period. The notices were mailed four times during the school year.

Parents with questions concerning their child's report card are being encouraged to contact the counselors or principal where the student attends school.

Weddings

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Kelly

Sacred Heart Roman Catholic Church was the scene of the wedding on May 1 of Miss Debra Kay Fick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fick, 2221 Grand Ave., and Ronald Eugene Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Jr., 3205 Wayne Ave. The Rev. James Shortall officiated at the 7 o'clock evening ceremony. Dan Vizer presided at the organ and accompanied Jeannie Pieper, Erin Whittenburg, Carol Schwierjohn and Larry Heagy as they sang several nuptial selections. Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a formal ivory A-line style gown fashioned of polyester chiffon. The bodice was designed with a sweetheart neckline, accented with Chantilly lace, and long tapered lace sleeves. Her chapel length pleated skirt was encircled with matching lace. She wore a lace Juliet cap, etched with seed pearls and sequins, to secure a cathedral train, bordered with lace. Maid of honor was Miss Karen Goodson and the bridesmaids included Miss Lynn Rutledge, Mrs. Maureen Nichols and Miss

Kelly-Ficor

They selected floor length dresses of white organza, embellished with tiny pink flowers, created with ruffled yokes which formed cap sleeves, and full skirts with gathered flounces at the hemlines. Cara Tegel was the flower girl. The groom chose his cousin, Richard Kelly Jr., as best man. Jay Fedora, Robert Brewer III and William Kelly, a brother of the groom, served as groomsmen. Seating the guests were William Charles and Robert Lee Fick, brothers of the bride. Mrs. Terri Hill and Mrs. Barbara Tegel assisted with the reception held at the Lion's Home in Madison, and Miss Becky Schmidtknecht presided over the guest book. Both young people graduated from Granite City High School South. The bride is currently working as a unit clerk at St. Elizabeth Medical Center, and the groom is employed as a gas fitter for Illinois Power Co., East St. Louis. He also is a member of the ancient Order of Hibernians. They are now residing in Granite City following a Caribbean cruise to Cozumel, Mexico, Jamaica, and Georgetown, Grand Cayman.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Sandra Smith, a sister of the bride, and the best man was Steven Dittich, the groom's brother. Christina Deaver and Elizabeth Deaver served as junior bridesmaids. Daniel Dittich and Sean Deaver were groomsmen and Charles and Joseph

First business could open in Alpine Shopping Center in about two weeks

By MICK STRANGE
of the Press-Record
The tentative grand opening for the new David Connole Alpine Village Shopping Center in Madison is scheduled for Saturday, July 10, it was announced Tuesday night by Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk at the Madison City Council meeting. However, he noted, the two major tenants are expected to open before that.

"The Farm Fresh Store is hoping to be open for business about June 7 or within about a week of that date. Reese Drug Store is hoping to open for business during the first week of July," he noted.

"For the grand opening, we are planning some real fine activities and special promotions. These two new stores will really be a plus to our entire community," Sasyk said.

Current bills for the shopping center approved for payment by the council were from Southern Imperial, Inc. for $305; Rx Systems, Inc. for $326; Production Metal Products Co., $922, and Sidener Supply Co., $33, for a total of $1,585 to be paid from Industrial Revenue Bond funds.

The council approved a rate change for the use of the Madison Fire Department Ambulance Service. The current basic rate of $75 per run for residents of the City of Madison will remain the same.

However, after the first five miles, a mileage charge of $2 per mile will be charged.

YOUTH FACES CANNABIS CHARGE
Kenneth A. Kirkover, 17, of 701 Ashland Ave., Mitchell, was charged with possession of cannabis after the auto he was operating was halted by a State Street at 9:45 p.m. Tuesday.

The officer alleged a strong odor of cannabis came from the vehicle. When Kirkover was questioned, he allegedly opened a tape case and displayed two plastic bags.

One bag contained 20 grams of cannabis rolled into cigarettes and the second bag held 25 grams. Kirkover was released on payment of a $52 cash bond.

transfers to St. Louis hospitals or hospitals other than St. Elizabeth Medical Center, which is within the five-mile limit.

Non-residents of Madison will be charged $125 plus $2 a mile for the total mileage run. The total mileage is computed as the number of miles traveled from the time the ambulance leaves the fire station for the run until it returns to the station at the completion of the call.

The council approved the blocking of streets for the 52nd Annual Parish Picnic on June 18, 19 and 20 for St. Mary's Church, 10th Street and Alton Avenue.

Permission was given the Little Rascals Boys Football Club of Granite City to hold an annual Tag Day. The tag day will be held Aug. 27 and 28.

City Comptroller Al Hudzik announced that a public meeting will be held at the Madison City Hall, beginning at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, July 1, to get ideas from the public on the future uses of Federal Revenue Sharing funds.

City Building Inspector John Dutko reported that work has started on repairing a house at 1534 Third St. and that the structure at 1286 Grand Ave. will be torn down as soon as a new garage is completed.

Dutko reported that he was having problems convincing the owner of an old garage on Alton Avenue between Fourth and Fifth Streets to tear it down.

The question of high weeds in vacant lots and around vacant building in the Fifth Ward was brought up by Alderman Charles Rockett. It was suggested that legal notice be given to the owners and, if they do not comply with the cutting of the weeds, charges be filed against them.

At the close of the meeting, Madison Mayor Sasyk was highly critical of a Letter to the Editor appearing recently in the Press-Record questioning payment by the city for snow removal in the amount of $42,000.

An answer in detail explaining the appropriation in question appearing in the Forum on today's editorial page.

Good timing. Police dogs follow locker cleanouts

On-the-scene newspaper photos of dogs sniffing school lockers. Television coverage of the searches for marijuana in Madison County schools. These things do not just accidentally happen, they take planning and coordination and the news crews, of course, followed and "stumbled" upon the live news happening. Wrong!

It's all orchestrated. Newspapers and television stations are called. "Tonight between 5:30 and 6 p.m., sheriff's department dogs will be searching lockers at XXX School," our telephone call goes.

All well and good. Such tips are appreciated and add to a newspaper's ability to inform the public in an interesting way. However, we wonder if the press coverage in area newspapers and television stations was the only thing "orchestrated." Last week, the Press-Record was told that the dogs were going to search Granite City High School South lockers in the evening. We had just read the school's schedule, which called for locker clean-outs that day. "To help find missing rented textbooks," Teachers were asked to supervise when the students cleaned out their lockers.

Not wanting to see the taxpayers' money wasted on a search of lockers which had just been cleaned out, we notified the authorities of the apparent mix-up. Search was postponed and another was promised before the end of the school year. We thought, at the time, that it may have just been coincidence — scheduling a locker search the evening after a locker clean-out. Possibly we were right.

However, when the dogs searched several other schools in the county and came up without so much as a marijuana seed, we began to wonder.

Perhaps the grand jury studying drugs in the schools summarized it best in its open letter to high school students released last week, which stated, in part, "We were not out to see how many kids we could catch using 'pot.' Most of you knew that drugs would be brought into your school; the question was 'When.' We gave you plenty of time to clean up your lockers."

How can we disagree.

U.S.-required paperwork among auto firms' burdens

Wall Street Journal — Anyone with a serious interest in why U.S. auto companies have difficulty competing with Japanese imports would do well to take a look at some numbers in GM's annual "public interest" report.

Few statistics better measure the burdens government is loading onto the auto industry and its employees. Payroll taxes, for example, GM's Social Security tax (FICA) withholdings last year were up 22 percent from 1980, despite the seven percent decline in its U.S. employment, which gives some idea how fast the Social Security tax burden has been rising.

Economists argue that the withheld taxes, along with the matching amount the company contributes to Social Security, should both be counted as labor costs. Some economists would argue as well that personal income taxes are part of wage costs, simply because workers, particularly unionized workers, demand that the company keep them "whole" in take-home pay.

Federal income taxes withheld for GM's U.S. work force last year rose 17 percent from 1980, four points more than the rise in payroll costs.

The 18 percent rise in payroll costs was interesting.

GM, as we said, had actually cut its work force. Its sales climbed only eight percent from the year before.

Its profits in 1981 were an improvement over the 1980 loss but still represented only 1.9 percent on shareholders' equity. The argument that payrolls are forced up by inflation and rising personal taxes, even when the income statement looks bad, seems plausible.

That, however, is not the full story either. GM estimates that the equivalent of 24,000 full-time employees spent last year meeting regulatory requirements placed on the company by government.

It calculates it has spent $12.5 billion over the last eight years meeting these requirements.

Of course, some of these must be met also by foreign competitors — safety standards and emission controls, for example.

But a large share of the burden is merely government-generated administrative paperwork that does not burden Nissan, Honda, etc.

In essence, then, GM is being pressed to keep its employees whole in the face of the "massive" cuts in personal income taxes in last year's tax bill and refusing to let the revenues being raised by Social Security taxes.

"Massive" tax cuts are not evident to auto companies and auto workers. And even the rate reduction scheduled for July 1 will be only partial relief.

As we said, if anyone wants to know why Detroit is down on its uppers, the explanation is not hard to find.

Hudzik explains snow removal appropriation

To the Editor:

I am writing this letter in reply to a news article published on May 18 and a letter to the Editor published on May 20 pertaining to the appropriation of Motor Fuel Tax funds in the City of Madison. If the news article implied that the estimated cost of snow removal during February, 1982, was $42,000 the news article was inaccurate.

Approximately $42,000 was appropriated in Motor Fuel Tax funds for snow removal for the entire 1982 calendar year and included the projected amount that may be expended during 1982.

In addition, the $42,000 appropriated is a figure that cannot be exceeded during calendar year 1982, but the total amount expended can be less.

Motor Fuel Tax funds are actually state of Illinois funds used to construct or maintain the streets, alleys, sidewalks and curbs throughout the state of Illinois. These state funds are sent directly to the cities, villages, townships and counties throughout the state and are administered by the unit of local government which receives them.

Even though the city council in this case appropriates the different categories for which these funds are to be spent yearly, the state of Illinois (through the Department of Transportation) has the final authority on the expenditures of these funds, and the city must receive approval from the state to expend any Motor Fuel Tax funds.

In the case of the snow removal referred to above (as well as other approved expenditures) the state of Illinois reimburses the city of Madison for the use of city manpower, and leases the city-owned equipment to maintain the streets of Madison, including snow removal. The rate of reimbursement to the city for manpower hours and lease amounts paid to the city for equipment rental is based upon figures agreed to by the city and the state within the state's guidelines. The use of city-owned equipment to remove the snow on an hourly basis ranges from $3 to $20, depending on the type of equipment used, and the cost of manpower used is reimbursed to the city on an hourly basis between $7.13 and $7.73, depending on the type of work performed.

The amounts paid to the city by the state for rental of city-owned equipment is made, even though Madison owns all of its equipment in full and has no outstanding indebtedness. The hourly rental figure includes an amount sufficient to pay for the gasoline, oil, maintenance and the part cost incurred to purchase the equipment used or to help build a reserve to purchase new equipment to be used in the future on street maintenance.

Currently, the total amount the city of Madison could charge to the state through the Motor Fuel Tax fund for snow removal (including donated labor and equipment hours) for the first part of calendar year 1982 is $34,253. This figure is based on the total number of manhours and equipment hours spent to remove the snow at the respective hourly rate agreed upon.

None of these funds have yet been received by the city's General Fund from the Motor Fuel Tax fund and the correct way to handle the donated labor and equipment will have to be discussed with the Department of Transportation.

In conclusion, I would like to acknowledge that the subject of municipal finances may, at times, become complex to the point that the news media and citizens may not always fully understand some of the actions taken by the city council or the city administrators.

Therefore, I would like to extend an invitation to the citizens of Madison to contact my office in the event action is taken that you do not fully understand or would like to question, and I will do my best to explain to you the actions taken.

Three-fifths vote not fair

To the Editor:

Until the Equal Rights Amendment was introduced, all amendments to the U.S. Constitution considered in Illinois had been ratified by just a majority vote. The Equal Rights Amendment needs an unfair three-fifths House and Senate.

The three-fifths rule can be changed at any time by a simple majority vote of the legislature. Sen. Sam Vadalabene has stated that he intends to vote to keep a supermajority (three-fifths) for the ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment.

Exactly one week after adopting a budget for next year which provides a leeway of only $2,168 for the retirement of $138,000 in unsecured debts, the grade school board of education Tuesday night went right ahead and exceeded the appropriation in salaries for principals by $67.59. Last week the board saw fit to retro less. Now they continue their "economy program" by contracting an expense which at the very first exceeds the amount they adopted in their budget. Instead of setting a budget up as a group of figures to keep expenses within as most municipalities do, they have lost no time in doing just the reverse.

Miss Peggy Janell Wallace climaxed a busy month yesterday by capturing the title of "Miss Granite City of 1907" at the annual Junior Chamber of Commerce beauty pageant held in the Granite City high school auditorium. Crowned early this month as 1907 May queen of Granite City high school, Miss Wallace celebrated her 18th birthday on May 18 and then defeated seven other entrants Sunday in earning the right to advance to the Miss Illinois contest in Centralia June 15 and 16. In the meantime, she will graduate from high school.

Senior Jim Robbers gave Granite City High School its first blue ribbon ever from the state track and field finals as he snatched the discus 175 feet, 10 inches, at Charleston Saturday. The local Warriors finished in a three-way tie for 14th place with six points. Robbers threw 159 feet, 8 inches in Friday's preliminaries to advance as the fifth best qualifier. He let loose with his first throw Saturday to set the mark which no one else could equal. His other two throws were 170 feet, 9 inches, and 162 feet, 4 inches.

Lindsay retains world diving title

Following his world championship performance last year, former Granite City resident Dave Lindsay had something to prove in 1982. Skeptics were calling his world high diving championship of last year a fluke. "Who was this unknown who had so rapidly risen from seemingly nowhere to become the best in the world?" the skeptics muttered. "I am Dave Lindsay," the 25-year-old Lindsay thought.

Whatever skepticism might have abounded, Lindsay cleared the air in March with a repeat performance to retain his title this year at Sea World in Orlando, Fla. Quad-Chilans will have the opportunity to see their native son retain his title as the championships will be aired this Saturday, May 29, on ABC's Wide World of Sports at 4 p.m.

In world high diving competition, divers are required to do three dives, one from 80 feet, a second from 90 feet and the third from 100 feet.

From the 80 foot height, Lindsay did the flying somersault. From the 90 foot mark, Lindsay did a triple somersault with a half twist, and in his third and final dive, Lindsay will do an arm stand-cut through from the 100 foot mark.

The 1974 Granite City High School North graduate is not content with just retaining his world high diving record. On April 25, in what is called the World Record Challenge, Lindsay and five other divers dove from 170-feet-34.

Afterwards Lindsay had little reason to celebrate. Upon contact with the water from that height, Lindsay suffered a separated collarbone and a bruised sternum. His speed upon impact from that height was estimated at exceeding 100 miles per hour.

After hitting the water, Lindsay lay still in the water, nearly unconscious from the 170 foot dive. People standing around made no attempt to help him as he slowly made his way to the pool's edge to exit the water.

He appeared to be stunned and unable to determine which way was up. Still no one helped him.

He made his out of the water, under his own power. Only after he exited the water did anyone assist Lindsay and arrange to have him taken to the hospital where he spent the next several hours.

Lindsay, despite the sacrifice of his physical wellbeing, settled for a third place finish in the dives. But, his dive of more than 170 feet now stands as a world record—a record he shares with five other divers.

Currently, Lindsay is getting back in shape, reconditioning himself, preparing for exhibition dives in Gatlinburg, Tenn., Busch Gardens in Florida, Hawaii and Sydney, Australia. Lindsay was a nine-year member of Paddlers' Swim Club in Granite City. The club opens this weekend.

Smith wins third race at Tri-City

By JOESENTER

Bo Smith made it three feature wins in a row as Tim Green took the sprint car feature Saturday night at Tri-City Speedway in Granite City.

A young, 22-year-old second generation race car driver, Bo Smith of St. Charles piloted his 1982 Firebird Smith Super Fly chassis with a Smith built 400 C.I. engine.

Smith started the 20-lap main event on the front row alongside of the Springfield "Flash" Dick Taylor. When the green came out Smith overpowered Taylor to the first turn and lead until lap 3.

When Kevin Gundaker in his Cam-2 Camero II took over after a restart from Vic Benhag and Fred Stotler again out.

Smith went back in lead on lap 5 as Gundaker blew a right front tire throwing him into the third turn guardrail knocking him out for the night.

Smith sailed on for the victory with Dick Taylor hitting at his rear for several laps coming across second and hard charging C.C. Corbin in third. Smith also won his heat race.

Tim Green from Carmichael, Calif. took the 20-lap sprint car feature event driving the Bob Trostle house car 20.

Ron Standridge of Springfield, Ill. took the lead at the green and led until lap 4 when Green took over and went all the way for the $700 first place win. Kenny Schrader finished in a lose second place coming from his fourth place start. Gary White came in third.

Green also won his heat race. Two of the nights favorites went out with engine problems.

Late model stock cars and spring cars race every Saturday night. This Saturday will be the "Busch Beer" twin 40 lappers with $1,000 going to the winner of each class. (May 29).

Regional AA baseball action begins today

1982 REGIONAL AA BASEBALL TOURNAMENT

For Granite City high school baseball fans and athletes, this is their weekend. This weekend may be the first of many sport season games, or it may be the abrupt end to an otherwise eventful Gateway East Conference season.

Beginning this afternoon, fifth seeded Granite City North takes on fourth seeded Cahokia in the preliminary round of the AA Regional Baseball Tournament. North will travel to Cahokia for the 4 p.m. game at the American Legion diamond.

Meanwhile, East St. Louis Sr., which is seeded sixth in the tourney, will take on third seeded East St. Louis-Lincoln at Lincoln.

First seeded Collinsville, and second seeded Granite City South, received byes in the first round and will play the winners of those two games on Saturday in the semi-finals.

In Thursday's preliminary game between North (12-15) and Cahokia (11-7), Steeler baseball coach Bob

Granite North Steelers

Stegemeier said he plans to throw either Carl Luehmann or Ray Takmajan against the Comanches. The Steelers are winless against Cahokia so far this season. According to Comanche coach Chet Barker, either Rick Tenholder or Mike Beck will take the mound for the Comanches.

"Cahokia's going to be tough. To get to the finals we've got to beat both Cahokia and Collinsville, two teams we have yet to beat this season," Stegemeier said. "I'd like to face South in the finals if we made it that far."

We're not thinking the finals right now, that's a long way off."

Meeting North in the finals is something South coach John Modica would not like.

"Who'd I least like to face in the finals? That's easy, North. We're 0-4 against North this year," Modica said. Having both Granite City teams in the finals is something that is not totally out of the question, as both are in different brackets. South needs only to defeat one opponent, the winner of the two East Side teams, and North needs two victories, Cahokia and Collinsville.

In South's game on Saturday against one of the East Side teams, Modica said, he plans to start hurler Joe Schefke on the mound. "If he holds up," Modica said, "we'll go with him all the way." An alternate, Modica said, would be Warrior pitcher George Diak. In the event of rain, competition will continue on Tuesday, June 1.

Madison hurlers fall in second round

FREEBURG — Following the Trojan baseball team's preliminary round 7-4 victory over Metro East Lutheran High School, the Freeburg Midgets shut out the Trojans in the second round 15-0 Tuesday.

In the first round against Metro-East, Madison trailed the Knights after one full inning 1-0 to nothing. The Knights led on to the slim lead until the third inning when Madison managed two runs to take the lead.

The Trojans scored another pair in the fourth inning, and three in the fifth to take a commanding 7-2 lead.

Madison was scoreless for the final two innings, but Metro-East managed two more runs in the seventh, but it was too little too late as the Trojans held on for the win.

Madison's Dan Stern picked up the win, while Metro-East's John Keillon was tagged for the loss.

Tuesday game against Freeburg can only be described as disastrous. The Midgets' Bill Clossen pitched his second No Hitter of the season against Madison.

Madison Trojans

shutting out the Trojans 15-0. Clossen's first no hitter was against Marissa.

"The game was never really out of our reach for the Trojans until the fifth and final inning when the Midgets managed nine runs."

The loss ended Madison's season record at 2-13. After a slow start, the Trojans managed to win two of their last four ball games.

"We had a slow start," John Paskus said, Madison's baseball coach. "I was afraid we'd go winless this season, but the kids pulled together in the last few games to give us a couple of wins."

A few athletes Paskus recognized for their contributions to the team this year were Dave Kaminsky, Stearns and Jeff Nicholas.

"All three of these guys batted at or around .300. I think Kaminsky batted near .300," he said. "Dave's pitched his heart out for this year. I can't say enough about him."

North, South fall in softball regional

Following Venice's loss to first seeded Civic Memorial, Madison's loss to third seeded Cahokia, and Granite City North and South followed suit with losses, as all four Quad-City area teams had fallen from contention.

South, seeded 13th, fell to fourth seeded Bunker Hill 12-1 in the first round of the Regional Tournament.

The Eagles proved to be too much for the Lady Warriors as Belhath downed the ladies in red 12-1 in five innings. The loss adjusted the Lady Warrior record to 3-15 on the season.

Similarly, the Lady Steelers had an equally difficult time with the Alton Redwings.

Against Alton, North fell 11-3. The game was actually closer than the score would indicate. Through the sixth inning, Alton held only a two-run lead, 5-3.

For the Steelers a couple of errors, and a couple of thinking mistakes here put the game out of reach in the seventh. The loss was the Steelers 14th in 17 games.

"Despite the mistakes, Steeler coach Gus Lignoni is confident that his young team has matured, and will be a better team next year. Only one senior left into the Steeler roster this year."

Likewise, Warrior coach Pat Yates expressed similar optimism about next year's Warrior team.

"We're young team and we know it," Yates said. "I think the girls got some valuable experience this year that will benefit them next year."

Trojanettes end premiere season .500

MADISON — Few athletic teams can boast of a winning season in their first year, but the Madison Trojanettes have done just that.

With a 10-2 victory over Granite City North last week, the Trojanettes upped their season record to 5-4, but a 14-5 loss in the first round of the regional softball tournament to third seeded Cahokia dropped their record to an even .500.

"I'm very pleased with our first year," said Carol Stearns, Madison's softball coach. "The girls really started hitting well at the end of the season. We're going to have to work on our pitching next year. That's how Cahokia beat us, they've got excellent pitching."

Against the Steelers, Madison started slow. The Lady Steelers jumped to a 2 to nothing first inning lead, but the Trojanettes came back in the bottom of the third scoring three runs to take the lead. It was a lead the Trojanettes never relinquished.

In the fourth inning, the Trojanettes scored four runs to increase their lead to seven. They picked up another pair of runs in the fourth inning, and a one run in the seventh to accumulate their 10 runs.

Outstanding performances for the Trojanettes were turned in by pitcher Stephanie Walker, who belted two round trippers and a single, Karen Voloski also batted 100 for the day as she swatted two triples and a single. "Karen's really come on in the last two games at the plate. She's really getting the bat on the ball," Stearns said.

In addition to Miss Walker's homers, Angelette Dandridge managed a home run of her own to seal the game for the Trojanettes.

Against Cahokia, the Trojanettes didn't do as well.

The Comanches jumped out to a 2 to nothing first inning lead, and improved on that in the third with another four to take a 6-1 lead in the third.

The Trojanettes got three more runs in their half of the fourth to move within two, 6-4. At that point it seemed as though the Trojanettes might make a comeback, but big sixth and seventh innings for the Comanches ended any hopes of a Trojanette comeback.

A five-run sixth inning and a three-run seventh inning for the Comanches, all but ended the game for the Trojanettes.

"Our pitching fell apart," Stearns said. "We began to lose the bases with walks."

Stearns has been critical of the Trojanette pitching throughout the season, but with her first season neatly tucked away in the win column, she is optimistic about next year's team.

State now controls hazardous wastes

Governor James R. Thompson announced last week that the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency has been made the primary enforcement authority in regulating hazardous wastes in Illinois.

"This transfer of authority from the federal government to the state of Illinois will streamline our enforcement programs that are used to go after hazardous waste dumpers," Thompson said. "We will no longer be tied down by having to refer certain cases to the federal government for prosecution. In addition, we also will have tougher penalties for violators under state provisions."

Phase One Federal Interim authorization grants the state the main authority in regulating hazardous waste generators, transporters, treatment, storage and disposal facilities under the federal Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA).

Interim Authorization from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency is the culmination of a comprehensive effort on the part of the Illinois EPA, Illinois Attorney General, Pollution Control Board and the Illinois General Assembly to qualify the state in several legislative and regulatory areas to administer this portion of the national program. Illinois legislation (Public Act 82-300) amended the state Environmental Protection Act and provided the state with the means to obtain authorization from USEPA.

ETU JOURNALISM DEPT. ACCREDITED

National accreditation of Eastern Illinois University's Journalism major has been announced by Dr. Daniel E. Marvin Jr., president, of ETU, Charleston.

"The accreditation action was taken by Accrediting Council on Education in Journalism and Mass Communication (ACEJMC) in San Francisco at its annual meeting. The Department of Journalism also was fully accredited."

Eastern is among four newly-accredited institutions by the national council composed of professional journalism organizations and journalism educators. Eighty-five of more than 300 journalism major programs in the United States are accredited.

Eastern first offered a Journalism major in fall semester, 1974, after Illinois Board of Higher Education approval. Nineteen students made up the first group of Majors. A total of 157 students were Journalism majors in spring semester, 1982. The Journalism teaching staff has grown from two persons in 1974 to nine full-time and one part-time instructors this academic year.

PURSE, $300 TAKEN

As Vicki Sparlock, 1347 Rhodes St., was participating in a rummage sale last weekend in the 2200 block of Edwards Street, her tan purse containing $300 was stolen from a porch.

The USEPA has developed regulations which allow states to submit applications to administer specific portions of the National Hazardous Waste Program. The program, portions for which states may apply are referred to as Phase One, which include responsibility for regulating generators, transporters, treatment and storage and disposal facilities; and Phase Two, which provides authority to issue permits to treatment, storage and disposal facilities.

The transfer of enforcement authority to the state will strengthen and streamline the execution of enforcement programs now in place to prosecute hazardous waste offenders. For example, enforcement cases under RCRA will no longer be referred to USEPA for prosecution and existing state procedures for enforcement will be used instead. These procedures for enforcement entail preparation of cases by the Illinois EPA to be filed before the Pollution Control Board.

Additionally, with this authorization, board rulemaking and amendments to the Environmental Protection Act, penalties for hazardous waste violations are greatly enhanced. Civil penalties provide a maximum $25,000 (fine, criminal provisions of the act allow for maximum fines of $1 million).

Thompson supports legislation to protect privacy of rape victims

Governor James R. Thompson has announced that he is backing legislation that will require insurance companies to fully cover the emergency room treatment costs of victims of rape or sexual assault.

"This provisions of this legislation will encourage more women who have been victims of this tragic crime to receive the proper care," the governor said. "It also will allow the privacy of the victims to be better protected while, at the same time, letting the state recover funds spent by the Rape Victims Assistance Program."

House Bill 2520, sponsored by Representatives Diana Nelson of LaGrange and

Bernard Epton of Chicago, has been amended to eliminate deductible and copayment provisions for the treatment of rape or sexual assault in hospital emergency rooms. This is an expansion of current law, which mandates that insurance company policies cover some expenses incurred by rape victims.

Besides mandating that all expenses be covered, the measure authorizes the Department of Public Health, which operates the Rape Victims Assistance Program, to obtain reimbursement from insurers in cases where insurance coverage is not reported by the victim because of a desire for privacy. Because of direct negotiations between the department and the insurer, the victim's privacy is protected.

In allowing the department to reimburse the costs of the program by recovering the money from the insurer, the cost of the program to taxpayers also is reduced, Thompson said.

Study possible impact from I-255 construction

By ED GURNEY
The Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan and Regional Planning Commission is studying the potential impact of the I-255 interchanges in this area.

SIMAPC planner Paul Ouderkirch outlined the study Thursday night for the Collinsville planning commission. The study is scheduled to be completed June 30.

Ouderkirch said he is studying the potential for development in the area within a one-mile radius of the interchanges at U.S. 40,

I-55-70, State Aid 35 and Illinois 162. The study is intended to serve as a guide for local officials, he said.

The study is funded by the Federal Highway Administration, Ouderkirch said.

Ouderkirch said the areas around the proposed interchanges in Madison County have greater potential for development than the interchanges in St. Clair County, which were the subject of a separate study already completed. There is more open land in Madison County, he said.

The SIMAPC study is taking into consideration such things as soil conditions, zoning, existing development plans, availability of utilities, parcel size and ownership, and accessibility, Ouderkirch said.

Although schedules are subject to change because of uncertain funding, the section of I-255 between I-44 and Illinois 15 in St. Clair County is scheduled to be open this fall, Ouderkirch said.

The next section, from Illinois 15 to the Jefferson Barracks bridge is supposed to open in late 1983, he said. The section between I-44 and I-55-70 is due to open in 1986 or 1987.

All the right-of-way of I-255 to 55-70 has been purchased, Ouderkirch said. It is "way up in the air" when the section of I-255 between 55-70 and I-270 will be built, he said.

Ranks of female veterans rising

The number of female veterans has increased significantly during the past 11 years, according to a report prepared by the Veterans Administration.

The report stated that while the number of male veterans has declined recently, the female veteran population is growing rapidly.

According to the study, the number of women on military active duty also is on the rise, indicating a continued increase in female veterans in the coming years.

The study found that women who are former members of the U.S. armed forces totaled 742,000 on Sept. 30, 1981, or 2.5 percent of all living veterans. In the past five years the number of female veterans has increased by 26 percent.

This large increase since the mid-1970's becomes even more apparent when comparisons are made with the number of male veterans. The ratio of male veterans to female veterans slightly exceeded 50 to 1 during the first half of the 1970's but dropped to 39.5 to 1 by the end of September, 1981.

Other findings include:

- Age—The median age of female veterans exceeded that of their male counterparts each year until 1979, after which their relative age pattern has been reversed.

The age structures of these two groups is expected to become more and more divergent during the next few years. As of September, 1981, the median age for female veterans was 46.2 years compared to 50.3 years for male veterans.

Period of military service—The distribution of female veterans by period of military service was fairly similar to that of males at the end of 1981. The major difference, and the one which largely explains the variance in the overall age structures of these two subgroups, is that a much greater proportion of women (17 percent) than of men (four percent) had served in the armed forces during the post-Vietnam era only.

Expectations for the future—The number of women in the armed forces will very likely continue to grow by significant numbers as the female veteran population will maintain a course of steady growth in the future years.

Copies of "The Female Veteran Population: An Overview of Its Growth in the Last Decade" are available free of charge, while the supply lasts, from the Office of Reports and Statistics (7111), Veterans Administration, 810 Vermont Ave., N.W., Washington, D.C., 20420.

Honor arson investigators

Governor James R. Thompson recognized the Peoria Fire Department and members of its Fire Investigation Unit, Monday for their work in tracking down and convicting arsonists.

"Arson is a crime that displaces people and destroys property. But more importantly, an arsonist sometimes is a killer. The Peoria Fire Investigation Unit is being honored for its continued fine work in convicting arsonists," the governor told the annual meeting of the Illinois Fire Chiefs Association.

The Peoria Fire Department was nominated for the recognition by Peoria County State's Attorney John Barra, who said the number of arson investigations and convictions in Peoria have continued to increase in recent years.

The Governor's Arson Advisory Board received the nomination and granted the recognition.

The governor presented a plaque to the Fire Investigation Division and individual certificates to the members of the division.

State acts to lessen impact of new federal unemployment rules

Governor James R. Thompson has announced a cost-containment program for Unemployment Insurance that will lessen the impact of tightened federal eligibility regulations on low-income people, households headed by a female and other claimants.

"With the help of business and labor leaders, Illinois will save millions of dollars in extended unemployment insurance benefits," Thompson said, "and the financial burden on these least able to afford the changes will be reduced."

"We have found the best option available to the state and claimants, reduced the impact of the federal requirements and complying with the law," he said.

An accord was reached during a meeting with the governor and several labor and business officials this week to discuss an option to bring Illinois into line with changes made by Congress in the unemployment law last October.

The program announced by Thompson on Friday will save the state more than $4.7 million in extended benefits under tighter federal law, but will lessen the financial blow to low-income people, households headed by a female and dependents.

Extended benefits for unemployment insurance provide an extra 13 weeks of income support to unemployed workers during high unemployment. Federal changes enacted by Congress last year require an additional eligibility requirement for claimants to receive aid after Sept. 25.

Thompson said that other options discussed during the meeting were more restrictive than the one chosen. Under the plan announced by the governor, the state will save more than $4.7 million when extended benefits are tapered.

Thompson vetoes relaxing campaign reporting rules

Governor James R. Thompson has announced that he amends to veto legislation that would have eased reporting requirements for campaign contributions.

"I have consistently declared my belief that public disclosure is an important safeguard within the political process," the governor said in his veto message. "I cannot in good conscience agree with legislation that relaxes the disclosure requirement currently in the law."

Thompson made changes in Senate Bill 791, a measure that makes comprehensive revisions in the state Elections Code and would have increased to $250 from $150 the minimum amount of campaign contributions that must be separately reported. The governor's action keeps the reporting threshold at the current $150 level.

The bill, sponsored by Senators LeRoy Lemke and Walter Nega, both of Chicago, and Mark Rhodes of Western Springs, provides for distinctions between legislative districts and representative districts in elections for state senators and representatives. It also spells out more detailed provisions for processing petitions for public questions and Constitutional amendments.

In addition, it removes references to cumulative voting procedures, now obsolete under revisions made in the size of the Illinois House.

The measure now returns to the General Assembly for its consideration of the amendatory veto.

TWO CHARGED WITH SIPHONING GASOLINE

A rubber hose, a fuel tank cap and a plastic bucket containing gasoline were confiscated.

Should townships foot the bill for police?

By JIM SCHLUTER
Making Madison County townships pay for its sheriff collection may be a good way to generate revenue for its sheriff's department, but the General Assembly must also be convinced that it's a good idea.

That's why the county sent a letter to Springfield last week, supporting a bill pending in the state legislature. The bill would allow townships to determine the amount of police protection they want and contract the sheriff's department for that service. Currently, only counties with populations of more than one million can ask townships to pay for police protection. Maj. Edwin Knezovich, director of administration for the Madison County sheriff's department, thinks the bill would be good for the county.

"I think it's good because it brings the townships an opportunity to say yes, no or whatever," Knezovich said. "Each township can contract for the services it wants."

The sheriff's department is the largest item on the county's budget, but it faces cutbacks in patrols because of the predicted budget crunch in 1983.

Making townships pay for their sheriff protection is one alternative the county has been studying to get more money and to keep sheriff cars on county roads.

Another alternative would make all unincorporated areas a special service area which could be taxed for police protection. Some county board members opposed this plan because it may force the sheriff to establish a special service area, 51 percent of the area's landowners would have to vote against the special referendum to defeat it.

Yet another alternative would place a referendum on the November ballot asking voters for a countywide tax to pay for sheriff's protection.

The county board voted against putting that referendum on the ballot because all would pay, but only unincorporated areas would receive the benefits of the tax.

"I don't think it would be fair to tax the entire county," County Board Member Fred Dalton, Collinsville, said. "The people in municipalities are already paying for police protection."

Dalton would like to see the townships bill passed in Springfield because he thinks it is one way the county can get the police protection he thinks they need.

"I don't think the rural areas get the police protection they need, but there is no state statute that says the sheriff has to patrol," Dalton said. "The sheriff does what his budget permits."

"If the township can contract out how much protection they want, it's a way for the people to demand that protection—but they have to pay for that right."

Food stamps to be delivered by mail

Illinois Public Aid Director Jeffrey C. Miller has announced that a Food Stamp Direct Mail Issuance Project will begin June 1 in 15 western and central Illinois counties, including Madison County. Food stamp recipients in participating counties will receive their food stamp coupons by direct mail.

Previously, food stamp recipients received their Food Stamp Authorization Card (ATP) in the mail and were required to exchange the ATP for food stamp coupons at post offices, banks or currency exchanges.

Food stamp recipients living in the counties listed will no longer be required to obtain their food stamps at financial institutions. Post offices, banks and currency exchanges in these counties will not be negotiating ATP cards for food stamp coupons after June 30, 1982.

The western and central Illinois counties involved in the project are: Bureau, Fulton, Henderson, Henry, Knox, Madison, Marshall, Mercer, Peoria, Putnam, Rock Island, Stark, Tazewell, Warren and Woodford.

Recipients having questions about the new food stamp policy may contact their caseworkers.

Reinstate payments for correspondence training

Legislation signed by the president this month includes a provision which allows the Veterans Administration to reimburse Vietnam-era veterans and eligible dependents for correspondence training begun after Sept. 30, 1981.

The law ends a moratorium on payments for new enrollments in such training which had been imposed for fiscal year 1982. Individuals now may receive reimbursement for 55 percent of the total cost of correspondence lessons completed and submitted to the school.

Unaffected are Vietnam-era veterans and dependents who have been continuously enrolled in correspondence training since Sept. 30. Post-

Vietnam-era veterans enrolled in correspondence training under the contributory veterans education program continue to receive full reimbursement.

Eligible veterans or dependents who started correspondence courses since September, or plan to, should contact the nearest VA regional office for details.

PARK VANDALISM
Arrested in the West Granite Park this weekend was Charles L. Lowry, 17, of 2134 Ohio Ave., was charged with disorderly conduct for allegedly attempting to dislodge a park table and bench. He was freed on $55 bail an hour later.

Public Notices

CHANCE IN CERTIFICATE OF OWNERSHIP OF

PUBLICATION NOTICE
Public Notice is hereby given that on May 6, 1982, a certificate was filed in the Office of the County Clerk of Madison County, Illinois, concerning the business known as HUNDLEY AUTO SALES, located at 3830 N. N. Road, Granite City, IL, which certificate sets forth the following changes in the operation thereof. That Lorette Hundley has no further connection with or financial interest in the business carried on under said assumed name.

Dated this 7th day of May, 1982.

EVELYN M. BOWLES, County Clerk
33 5 20 27

you can bank on it!

DREW KARANDJEFF
President

Q: You have been asked to co-sign a loan for a very close friend. Is it wise to act as a co-signer?

A: That's a question that ultimately you alone can answer. But your answer should have a strong basis in fact. For example, you should be aware that as a co-signer, you will be legally obligated to repay the full amount of the loan should your friend default.

Therefore, your decision should be based on a few other questions you should ask yourself: How well do you know this person asking you to co-sign for him? Do you have a very strong reason to believe that he can and will repay the note? Are you prepared to repay the note if he—any reason—doesn't? If you decide to co-sign, make absolutely complete before you sign (this is true of any contract). Also, have it specified in the contract that you will be notified if any payments are missed.

Make sure none of your possessions (house, car, etc.) are pledged as security unless you expressly agree with the provision. As a co-signer, you do assume a risk of which you should definitely be aware.
